Dear Mr. Cukor and Ms. Donegan,

You are not Mr Lanterman's collection attorneys and I suggest that you not get sucked into this.

Edward Miller, Esq.

Mr. Cukor and Ms. Donegan-

Could I bother you to bring Mr. Miller's email to the attention of the Court- "The judge is not your collection attorney." See below. The Court issued a text order requiring me to continue to store the case related data. Mr. Miller seems to think he is no longer responsible for charges under our contract. I should not be required to work for free and I seek guidance from the court.

I have attached our invoice and our signed engagement agreement.

I'm sorry to bother you with this, but Mr. Miller doesn't leave me with many options. If you are unable to assist, please let me know and I will contact the judge directly.

Thank you.

Mark

Mr Lanterman, a long time ago I made clear that I am no longer accepting liability for your services. If you feel that I owe you money, the proper recourse for you is to sue me for the money you feel I owe you. The judge is not your collection attorney.

You should have this information in your email, Ed.

I have attached our invoice for storage from 12-1-21 through 7-1-23. I have also attached the contract you signed agreeing to pay for this service.

Let me know when we can expect payment.

Mr. Frisch,

I am reaching out today to clarify some details related to the court-ordered data storage.

Mr. Miller indicated he is not paying for this court-ordered service. To ensure everything stays on track and in order, could you kindly confirm who will be responsible for settling this account - will it be Mr. Miller or yourself?

If there is any confusion or uncertainty about the matter, I am prepared to contact the Court for further guidance. Please do inform me if this step becomes necessary.

I appreciate your prompt attention to this matter. Thank you for your cooperation.

Best regards,

All—

I am writing to respectfully request guidance about the data CFS maintains for the Vision Industries v. ACU Plasmold file. On January 25, 2022, Judge Waldor issued an order in the case. Since then, CFS has maintained the data that is the subject of that order.

I have attached a copy of CFS's engagement letter. On page two, continued hosting of the data is a service for which CFS charges. Shortly after Judge Waldor's order, Mr. Miller indicated that he will not pay CFS, and indeed he has not. CFS has been providing services, for free, for a year and a half. Could someone please let me know whether CFS may destroy this data, or alternatively, could someone request guidance from the Court related to this issue?

CFS will continue to comply with the Court's directives until then.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I recognize that it is not a usual situation. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me directly.

Mark
